

LESSON 42

Question 65: What does the fifth commandment forbid?

Answer: The fifth commandment forbids being _____ to or not _____ as their _____ or _____ to us demands.

Question 66: What reason is tied to the fifth commandment?

Answer: The reason tied to the fifth commandment is the promise of _____ and _____ to those who keep the commandment, so long as it is for God's _____ and their _____.

Ephesians 6:2 Honor your father and mother (this is the first commandment with a promise)

Ephesians 6:9 Masters... and stop your threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

Romans 13:7 Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.

UNDERSTANDING AND APPLYING LESSON 42

- 1. Who is the primary authority whom we should seek to honor?
- 2. Is the fifth commandment mainly about how those in authority are to behave, or about how we are to respond?
- 3. Is it possible to honor people more than we honor God? Would it be right to do so?
- 4. To honor someone in authority do we have to agree with their perspective or decisions?
- 5. Can we honor people in authority who are falling short of their responsibilities? How?
- 6. To honor a person in authority must we obey their every command?

7. What standard should we use to know how we should respond to our authorities?

8. What would happen in society if no one honored the law or authorities?

9. Why do you think we sometimes dislike the authorities in our lives?

10. Where do you think that distrust or dislike of authorities began?

Do you have more questions of your own?

Write down them down here and discuss them with a parent or teacher.
