Question 93: What are the sacraments of the New Testament?

Answer: The sacraments of the New Testament are _____ and the _____.

Question 91: How do the sacraments become effective toward salvation?

Answer: The sacraments become effective _____ of salvation not because of any _____ in the act or in the _____ who administer them, but rather by the _____ of _____ and the _____ of his _____ in those who _____ them by _____.

Matthew 28:19 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit...

1 Corinthians 11:25-26 In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.

Romans 4:11 He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised.

UNDERSTANDING AND APPLYING LESSON 54

- 1. What is unique about baptism and the Lord's Supper that sets these practices apart in the New Testament church?
- 2. Write down the phrases or verses from the Bible where Jesus commanded these practices to continue.
- 3. How is it helpful to us that both of the sacraments incorporate physical actions or signs?
- 4. Are the sacraments only outward signs? What else happens when we participate in them?
- 5. Why is an attitude of faith important when we participate in the sacraments?

6. If someone receives one of the sacraments does that guarantee that they are saved?

7. What kinds of things would indicate that a person received the sacraments "just because" instead of from true faith?

8. What kinds of things keep our faith alive rather than simply falling into a religious routine?

Do you have more questions of your own?

Write down them down here and discuss them with a parent or teacher.
